Bookends Therapy™ Bridges Gaps

How does it work?

- Center the “Whole Person”
- Reset team culture
- Mend communication gaps
- Build stronger relationships

Who is it for?

- Counselors
- Social Workers
- Case Managers
- Clinicians
- Educators
- Caregivers

As a loved one to people with disabilities, Julie Lago, became a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker. Having experienced how challenging it was for those in her life with disabilities to have their mental health needs recognized and supported, she used her clinical and systems knowledge to create Bookends Therapy™.

This training and certification ensures individuals' needs and wants are prioritized to develop a cohesive team approach.

“

“This was an eye opening training in learning to work with client input and centered care.”
